Healthcare and the Path to Employment

True or False?

If I go to work, I will automatically lose my Medicare or Medicaid.

False!

If you are receiving a benefit payment in any amount, you will keep your Medicare or Medicaid.

If your benefit payments stop due to earnings from work and you remain medically disabled, you may be able to keep your Medicare or Medicaid through:

- Work Incentives
- Buy-in Programs (in many states)

Medicaid and Work Incentives

Medicaid and Work Incentives

Medicaid Work Incentives

- Medicaid While Working – 1619(b)
- Medicaid Buy-in Program

Medicaid While Working or 1619(b) (Slide 1 of 3)

If you receive SSI, you may qualify for continued Medicaid coverage when your benefit payments stops if you:

1. Have been eligible for an SSI benefit payment for at least 1 month
2. Continue to meet Social Security's definition of disability
3. Still meet all other non-disability SSI requirements
4. Need Medicaid benefits to continue to work
5. Have gross earnings that are below your state's threshold of eligibility

Medicaid While Working or 1619(b) (Slide 2 of 3)

- The “threshold amount” is the measure that Social Security uses to decide whether your earnings are high enough to replace your SSI and Medicaid benefits.
- Your threshold amount is based on:
 - The amount of earnings that would cause your SSI cash payments to stop in your state; and
 - The average annual per capita Medicaid expenditure for your state.
- See updated state thresholds amounts.

Medicaid While Working or 1619(b) (Slide 3 of 3)

- If your gross earnings are higher than the threshold amount for your state, Social Security may determine an individual threshold if you have:
 - Impairment-Related Work Expenses
 - Blind Work Expenses
 - A Plan to Achieve Self-Support (PASS)
 - Publicly-funded attendant or personal care
 - Medical expenses above the state per capita amount

Medicaid Buy-in Program

Your state may allow you to buy Medicaid if you are disabled and no longer entitled to free Medicaid because due to earnings from work. In this case, many states allow you to purchase coverage in a Medicaid Buy-in Program.

- You may qualify if you:
 - Meet the definition of “disabled” under the Social Security Act
 - Would be eligible for SSI payments if not for your earnings
- People who receive SSDI may also be eligible depending on their income and other criteria.

To qualify:

- You must already have Medicare and be working at Substantial Gainful Activity
- You cannot be medically improved

- Vocational rehabilitation
- Training and education

Some states have separate VR agencies that serve individuals who are blind and visually impaired.

Employment Network (EN)

An EN is a private or public organization that has an agreement with Social Security to provide free employment support services to people who are eligible for the Ticket Program.
